Are you afraid to act the way you want to? Will you take the crown you want so badly, or will you live as a coward, always saying, "I can't" after you say, "I want to"? Macbeth: Please, stop! I want to do only what is good for a man to do. He who wants to do more is not a man at all. Lady Macbeth: If you weren't a man, then what were you when you told me you wanted to do this? When you wanted to do it, that's when you were a man. And if you do it you'll be a real man. The time and place are just right, but you are afraid. Macbeth: But if we fail? Lady Macbeth: We, fail? If you get your courage up, we can't fail. When the King is asleep I'll get his two servants so drunk that their memory will go up in smoke through the chimneys of their brains. When they lie asleep like pigs, so drunk they'll be dead to the world, what won't you and I be able to do to the unguarded King? And whatever we do, we can lay all the blame on the drunken servants. Macbeth: Your fearless spirit is like a man. Now I'm decided, and I will use every muscle in my body to commit this crime. Go now, and pretend to be a friendly hostess. Hide with a false pleasant face what you know in your false, evil heart. 1. How will Macbeth and Lady Macbeth get to the King? 2. Why is Macbeth not sure he if he wants to kill the King?

All in all, it was a very successful day! They managed to sell all the fabric and made a good profit. Solomon was very happy as they set off for home. His pockets were full and he had his son by his side. After a long, busy day at the market and after chatting to lots of satisfied customers, they were very tired and walked wearily back to the village but with a smile on their faces. After some time, they met a sugarcane juice seller at the side of the road. They were exhausted and very thirsty so they stopped to buy some juice and take some rest. The sugarcane would give them energy to continue their journey. While sipping the juice and enjoying the sunset, they told the seller what a successful day they had had and how good fortune had smiled on them. 'My wife is sick and needs to go to hospital. Take pity on me and share some of your good fortune.' said the seller. Solomon looked at Daniel and then at the seller and reached for the money in his pockets. 'Here, take this.' he said as he gave the seller a wad of notes. 'And may your wife be well and healthy very soon.' Solomon and his son continued their journey, refreshed and with happy hearts. Solomon's son learned an important lesson that day - one that he would remember for the rest of his life. 1. Why were Solomon and Daniel tired but happy? 2. Why did they stop on their way home, who did they meet and what did he ask for? 3. What lesson did Daniel learn from his father that day? 4. What kind of person do you think Daniel became?
